

News & Notes

New Residents

Terry Johnson moved into sp. 31. He moved here from out of town to be closer to family.

Welcome to our new resident! Please be sure to get to know him and invite him to all the activities around the park.

Sad, Sad News

Kevin Luke, sp. 232 passed away February 12th. He moved here January 2015. Our condolences to his family, friends and all who knew him.

Pet Patrol

The weather is warming up and cooling off all in the same day (week). Please do not let your animals roam around the park unless they are on a leash and you are holding that leash. Also make sure that you pick up anything your animal deposits on the street so no one can step in it, roll over it with their vehicle. Having said that also make sure that your animal does not deposit anything in your neighbor's yards. You would not want anyone to do that to you so don't do it to them.

For Safety's Sake

Reporting and Purpose of Reporting

The purpose for reporting suspicious activity to the police is to stop the criminal activity, increase police presence in your neighborhood and give a true prospective of crime. Making a report will enhance the possibility of getting your property returned.

Keep police emergency numbers close by when reporting suspicious activity or an emergency. Anything that seems slightly 'out of place' or does not look right could be criminal activity. CALL THE POLICE IMMEDIATELY about all suspicious activity. Do not worry about 'bothering' the police or being embarrassed if your suspicions prove to be unfounded. Think ahead about what could happen if you don't act. Give the police or the telephone clerk:

The reason for the call.

The location of the activity.

The description of the suspect and any vehicle involved.

If the crime is in progress, give the circumstances and possible crime being committed.

When in Doubt, Call It In

Under no circumstances attempt to apprehend a person committing a crime or investigate suspicious activity. The police department would rather investigate than be called when it is too late. Your call could save a life, prevent an injury or stop a criminal act. BE ALERT!

Not every stranger who comes into your neighborhood is a criminal by any means. There are door-to-door salesmen (who do not belong in the park at all), repairmen and servicemen moving around our neighborhoods all the time. But criminals do take advantage of this by pretending to be legitimate workmen.

From the Manager

The February potluck was great. Thank you to everyone who helped: Bob Riegel, Ryan Riegel, Terry Stancil and Beth Burke.

This month's potluck will be Monday, March 9th from 5:30-7:30 PM in the clubhouse. We will be decorated for St. Patrick's Day. John Riegel (I think) will be here preparing the roast beef and providing the mashed potatoes and gravy. Beth Burke will be preparing the corned beef and Sue will be preparing the cabbage and carrots. If you need special seating or transportation to the clubhouse, please call the office before noon that day. Please remember to bring your favorite side dish, your place settings, your neighbors and your smile. See you there!

An important message from the office: Please make sure you make out your rent check to Riegel Properties and not Holiday Homes using blue or black ink only. Thank you!

---

Lot Inspections will begin toward the end of this month. Beth will be inspecting your lots for weeds, trash, loose railings, homes and awning that need paint and whatever else deemed a safety hazard. Good luck everyone!

---

Neighborhood Watch will be having a meeting in the clubhouse Wednesday, March 11th from 5-6:30 PM. This group is run and completely made up of our resident volunteers. If you would like to know more about Neighborhood Watch or would like to join, please come to this meeting.

---

Daylight Saving Time begins Sunday, March 8th. Don't forget to set your clocks an hour ahead before you go to bed Saturday night or right after you get up Sunday morning. You do not want to be late.

---

Donna Berry has a Tai Chi class in the clubhouse every Tuesday and Thursday morning from 8-9 AM. Everyone is invited to take part. Classes are free.

---

For any resident in the park who refers a new resident that buys a Riegel Property home and signs a 5-year lease, you will receive a one month rent credit valid any month you choose within a one-year period.

---

The Barstow Police Department wanted us to know that they can put your name, phone number, space number, medical condition and up to 3 contacts of friends or relatives into their computer aided dispatch system so that, in case of emergency, they have someone to call for our Resident's with Special Needs. The information would be the resident's responsibility to update or change if you move. Call the office to get the form to fill out or drop off a note at the police department with a notation stating what your note is for.

DO NOT put paint or oil collections behind the shop. Also, DO NOT put Tires there. Burrtec will not pick up those items. You can dispose of paint or used oil at the Hazardous Waste Corporation Yard at 900 So. Ave H on Saturdays from 9AM-2PM. You can also ask them what to do with tires.

Attention Seniors (Age 60+)

Did you know? You could have a nutritious meal for a donation of only $3.00? All meals include a main dish, vegetable, drink and dessert.

Where?

At the Barstow Senior Citizen's Center, located at 555 Melissa Ave. Our lunch service time is from 11:30 am until 12:30 pm. Our phone number is 1-760-256-5023.

This meal is provided through a grant from the Department of Aging and Adult Services of San Bernardino County. All donations are to help off set the cost of staff, utilities and the care of equipment. Without your donation, the program would stop. You can bring a friend but if they are under 60 years of age: their donation will cost $5.00. (This is still a great meal deal!) We also provide meals to homebound seniors!

For more information, call 1-760-256-9111.

Thank you,

Jeff Eason

Please watch out for your neighbors. If you don't see them over a day or so and you know they haven't left on a vacation, give the office a call so we can follow up.

---

We are currently looking for an instructor for our clubhouse and pool exercise. This person needs to be certified by the Arthritis Foundation. If you know of anyone, please have them call the office to speak to either Beth or myself.

---

We are doing our best to keep the park safe but we need your help. If you see someone acting suspiciously or anything suspicious, PLEASE call the Barstow Police Dept. at 1-760-256-2211. You can request that the responding officer not show up at your door. If the officer needs to talk to you, they can call you on the phone. With all of us working together, we can help minimize these types of problems.

If a resident makes a change in existing accessory equipment, the standards for incoming mobile homes must be met and all work shall be completed within sixty (60) days of approval.

B. Building Permits: Building permits, licenses and other similar permission from government agencies must be obtained, if so required, before any installation or construction of certain accessory equipment and structures. All work is to be performed in a professional manner.

C. Park Management Approval Required: Prior to commencing anew installation of or a change in accessory equipment and structures, or a change in any appliance which is to be connected to the gas, electric or water supply (except for replacement of an existing

D. Exceptions for the age requirement when submitted in writing may be granted at management's discretion on a case-by-case basis.

G. Mobile Home Sizes: All mobile homes in the Park shall conform in size to the requirements of the lot on which they are placed as established by Park Management. The area covered by mobile home accessories and structures shall not exceed 75% of lot area. Placement of mobile homes shall be determined by Park Management.

Jokes

My wife sat down on the couch next to me as I was flipping channels. She asked, "What's on TV?"

I said, "Dust."

And then the fight started.

My wife was hinting about what she wanted for our upcoming anniversary. She said, "I want something shiny that goes from 0 - 150 in about 3 seconds."

I bought her a scale.

And then the fight started.

When I got home last night, my wife demanded that I take her someplace expensive...I took her to a gas station.

And then the fight started.

After retiring, I went to the Social Security office to apply for social Security. The woman behind the counter asked me for my driver's license to verify my age. I looked in my pockets and realized I had left my wallet at home. I told the woman that I was very sorry but I would have to go home and come back later.

The woman said, "Unbutton your shirt." So I opened my shirt revealing my curly silver hair.

She said, "That silver hair on your chest is proof enough for me" and she processed my Social Security application.

When I got home, I excitedly told my wife about my experience at the Social Security office.

She said, "You should have dropped your pants. You might have gotten disability, too."

And then the fight started.

My wife and I were sitting at a table at my high school reunion and I kept staring at a drunken lady swigging her drink as she sat alone at a nearby table.

My wife asked, "Do you know her?"

"Yes," I sighed, "She's my old girlfriend. I understand she took to drinking right after we split up those many years ago and I hear she hasn't been sober since."

"My God!" says my wife, "who would think a person could go on celebrating that long?"

And then the fight started.

Operator: "Ridge Hall, computer assistance, May I help you?"

Caller: "Yes, well, I've having trouble with WordPerfect."

Operator: "What sort of trouble?"

Caller: "Well, I was just typing along and all of a sudden the words went away."

Operator: "Went away?"

Caller: "They disappeared."

Operator: "Hmm. So what does your screen look like now?"

Caller: "Nothing."

Operator: "Nothing?"

Caller: "It's blank; it won't accept anything when I type."

Operator: "Are you still in WordPerfect or did you get out?"

Caller: "How do I tell?"

Operator: "Can you see the 'C: prompt' on the screen?"

Caller: "What's a sea prompt?"

Operator: "Never mind, can you move your cursor around the screen?"

Caller: "There isn't any cursor; I told you, it won't accept anything I type."

Operator: "Does your monitor have a power indicator?"

Caller: "What's a monitor?"

Operator: "It's the thing with the screen on it that looks like a TV. Does it have a little light that tells you when it's on?"

Caller: "I don't know."

Operator: "Well, then look on the back of the monitor and find where the power cord goes into it. Can you see that?"

Caller: "Yes, I think so."

Operator: "Great. Follow the cord to the plug and tell me if it's plugged into the wall."

Caller: "Yes, it is."

Operator: "When you were behind the monitor, did you notice that there were two cables plugged into the back of it, not just one?"

Caller: "No."

Operator: "Well, there are. I need you to look back there again and find the other cable."

Caller: "Okay, here it is."

Operator: "Follow it for me and tell me if it's plugged securely into the back of your computer."

Caller: "I can't reach."

Operator: "OK. Well can you see if it is?"

Caller: "No."

Operator: "Even if you maybe put your knee on something and lean way over?"

Caller: "Well it's not because I don't have the right angle - it's because it's dark."

Operator: "Dark?"

Caller: "Yes - the office light is off and the only light I have is coming in from the window."

Operator: "Well turn on the office light then."

Caller: "I can't."

Operator: "No? Why not?"

Caller: "Because there's a power failure."

Operator: "A power...a power failure? Aha. Okay, we've got it licked now. Do you still have the boxes and manuals and packing stuff that your computer came in?"

Caller: "Yes."

Operator: "Good. Go get them and unplug your system and pack it up just like it was when you got it. Then take it back to the store you bought it from."

Caller: "Really? Is it that bad?"

Operator: "Yes, I'm afraid it is."

Caller: "Well, all right then, I suppose. What do I tell them?"

Operator: "Tell them you're not smart enough to own a computer!"
